BODY:

Odessa, Ukraine - XwaveSoft today is proud to announce the release and immediate availability of Cloud Outliner 2.0, a major upgrade to their productivity app for iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch devices. Cloud Outliner allows anyone to create and share interactive and customizable notes (called outlines) between their devices and an Evernote account. Users can organize their plans, projects, and ideas in a clear, concise manner, and immediately access their outlines from any of their devices. The new version of the app includes a multi-tier document manager, password protection, rich-text editing, PDF exporting, and more.

Cloud Outliner 2.0 is not simply another notebook or sticky notes app. Its tight integration with Evernote and iCloud, along with a comprehensive text editor, extensive import and export capabilities, and a truly intuitive user interface, allows the app to become an invaluable assistant, at work, at home, or on the road. Cloud Outliner 2.0's powerful built-in editor allows easy formatting of any ideas a user might want to put to virtual paper. Anyone can seamlessly share their data with others in a number of ways. The app's exporting capabilities allow sharing via a number of formats, and the app syncs with popular cloud storage and notes syncing services.

"We designed Cloud Outliner 2.0 so it would allow users to concentrate on the things that really matter," says Denys Yevenko, owner of XwaveSoft. "Cloud Outliner 2.0 will become a user's reliable assistant, allowing them to put their thoughts, ideas, ongoing tasks, or even simply 'remind me' memos down on digital paper, and access them wherever they are via iCloud and Evernote. The outlines can be password protected, so users need not worry about the security of their valuable intellectual property."

Cloud Outliner 2.0 features a powerful rich-text editor, offering users the ability to use drag-and-drop for sorting and reordering rows. A simple left or right swipe with a finger allows anyone to change the indentation level of lists and paragraphs. Users can make use of the handy multi-selection feature to reorder rows, change their indentation, or to delete them all at once. Optional checkboxes, three styles of automatic numbering, notes for data and list items, customizable text size, color and style, and a handy read-only mode are just some of the handy features built-in to Cloud Outliner 2.0.

Feature Highlights:

- * Flexible multi-tier document manager
- * Password protection

- * Multi-selection feature to reorder rows, change indentation, or delete them all at once
- * Optional automatic numbering (3 styles)
- * Adding notes to list items
- * Customizable text size, color, and style
- * Read-only mode support
- * Collapse/expand functionality for all items
- * Filters for displaying only checked or only unchecked items

Sharing of outlines is a snap, as Cloud Outliner 2.0 includes the ability to export outlines to PDF, import and export OPML files, print outlines via AirPrint, email outlines via email or iMessages, as well as access a handy "Open In..." feature that allows users to open their outlines in other compatible iOS apps. Automatic synchronization of outlines is transparent to users, as all outlines are conveniently synced with iCloud and Evernote.

Additional features include:

- * Light and Dark themes
- * Search by outline name or an arbitrary text string
- * Clear and intuitive design
- * Portrait & Landscape mode support
- * Full screen landscape mode on iPhone
- * Single app for iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch

By making use of the powerful features included in Cloud Outliner 2.0, anyone can easily create and share their outlines, search for action items, check off completed tasks, mark important records, and more to track their projects from the initial idea stages all the way to the end of the completed project.
